

T1 Bond

Being a beneficiary of custom guarantee given by Welcome Airport Services sp. z o. o., ul. Żwirki i Wigury 1, 00-906 Warszawa, according to my custom service request issued on, for the customs and tax duties payable on the goods during the transit procedure (T1), we as the ordering party declare, that:

- We are aware of the consequences that arise when the goods are placed under the transit procedure, being aware of this, we will bear all legal and financial liability for omission or error made by the carrier and importer, as a result of which a debt, or other financial obligations could arise, in the form of penalties, could arise, fees or charges charged by the customs and tax authority related to the lack of or delay in presenting the goods at the office of destination.

- We undertake to provide copies of customs clearance or alternative evidence in the event of requests from customs and tax authorities to Welcome Airport Services sp. z o. o. in connection with the execution of the order.

- In the absence of confirmation of the completion of the transit procedure (T1), we undertake to pay Welcome Airport Services sp. z o. o. the amount of the receivable resulting from the granted guarantee, immediately after receiving the request for payment. In the absence of payment, we agree to pay a commission of 10% per month on the amount of the receivables. The commission will be charged until the ordering party pays the amount due together with interest due to the customs and tax authorities.

- From the date of expiry of the time limit for presenting the goods at the office of destination, the ordering party declares that he is assuming the principal's obligations under the transit procedure.

.....date and place

..... signature of the person representing the ordering party